

STATE ELECTION 2010 SAY 'NO' TO EUTHANASIA & ASSISTED SUICIDE

In November 2009, the SA Upper House came within one vote of passing a euthanasia bill. That's too close for comfort!

At the 2010 election, two Upper House members who have always stood against euthanasia are retiring.

Unless we make a conscious decision to support candidates who are known to oppose euthanasia, the scales may well tip in favour of legalisation after the State Election.

More than ever, we need to make our voting decisions in the Upper House based on moral and ethical principles, putting party allegiances or preferences, second.

Protect your family's future, make your vote count for life!

ABOUT THIS GUIDE

This guide has been prepared to help you decide. It should be taken as a guide and NOT as a 'How To Vote' card.

It is based upon:

- Known previous euthanasia voting record (for most existing MLCs)
- Expressed intention (what MLCs have said about their intention)

Note: Where the intention of an MLC or candidate is not clear, we have erred on the side of caution.

ABOUT THE UPPER HOUSE

Upper House members (Members of the Legislative Council or MLCs) have as their electorate the whole state. Therefore, all South Australians who are eligible to vote and who are on the State Electoral Roll at the time of the election get to vote to fill the eleven (11) positions available at each election.

MAKING YOUR VOTE COUNT IN DEFENCE OF LIFE

When making your vote for the Upper House you have two choices: either place the number 1 against your party of preference above the line, or number every box below the line, working down from 1 being your first choice candidate, 2 for your second choice etc...

At the bottom of this page you will see an example of what the Upper House ballot slip may look like.

We recommend that you consider the names listed as your preferred candidates.

*The order that you list them is up to you, but you will need to vote BELOW THE LINE and NUMBER EVERY BOX
